

JOSEPH BERNSTEIN, MD, MS, FACS

Education:	A.B. Columbia 1984; M.D. Cornell 1990; M.S. Harvard 1990
Internship:	Surgery, Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, 1990-1991
Residency/Fellowship:	Orthopaedics, Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, 1991-1996
Faculty Appointment:	Clinical Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery, University of Pennsylvania
Hospital Appointment:	Attending Surgeon, Veteran's Administration Hospital
Board Certification:	American Board of Orthopedic Surgery (recertified through 2018)
Licensure:	Pennsylvania 1992-present
Select Awards & Honors:	Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Omega Alpha, Lindback Award for Teaching
Select Memberships:	Fellow, American College of Surgeons, Fellow, American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons Member, Association of Bone and Joint Surgeons Member, American Orthopaedic Association
Select Editorial Positions:	Deputy Editor, Clinical Orthopaedics and Related Research
Select Teaching:	Course Director, Orthopedics 200, "Clerkship in Orthopaedics"
Research Publications:	>60 peer reviewed papers in CORR, JBJS and others
Non- Research Publications:	>70 Editorials, Chapters, Reviews
Books:	Musculoskeletal Medicine . American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons Frontline Musculoskeletal Medicine [forthcoming]
Alternative Media:	Co-founder: OrthopaedicsOne.com
Patents:	Anterior cruciate ligament tether. Patent #777039. Method of reducing intraosseous hypertension. Patent #12/685,195